There's nothing more fun than lacing up a pair of old-school roller skates and heading to the local roller rink. Whether you're looking to show off your moves to some classic pop tunes or you're a newbie to skates, Syracuse, New York has plenty of spots to spin circles around the room. Many of the rinks have limited hours and opening days, so it's always best to check in advance when planning a skating party or fun evening date.

Black Mamba Skate Park

Black Mamba Skate Park, a hybrid indoor skateboarding park and roller rink, is conveniently located in the ShoppingTown Mall. Hours vary, but the rink and skate park are open most days of the week until 8 p.m. There are ramps, rails and pipes for those who want to skateboard, as well as lessons for beginnings and an equipment shop. Check the park's website for coupons or follow them online to watch for upcoming deals and specials. Note that all participants will have to sign a waiver before skating or boarding.

Bilou Roller Skating Rink

Bilou Roller Skating Rink, in Fulton, New York, about 24 miles northwest of Syracuse, has been around since 1985. It's open Friday, Saturday and Sunday, with afternoon hours on the weekends. It's cash only, so be sure to visit the ATM before heading to skate. It's a perfect venue for kids birthday parties or family gatherings, especially for those who don't mind the drive out of Syracuse.

Skate-A-While

Head to Rome, New York to strap on a pair of skates at Skate-A-While, a local rink with hardwood floors, disco lights and a serious sound system. It's open to the public on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday nights, as well as Saturday and Sunday afternoons (exact hours available on the rink's website). Prices are affordable, ranging from $6 to $7 per person, and there is also a game room for those looking for additional entertainment. Plan a private party at the rink by calling.

Rollarama Skating Center

Venture a few hours out of town to B & B Roller Rink, a family-friendly roller skating rink first opened 1957. It's got a large skating area and offers special events, themed skating days and skate rentals, and skaters are welcome every day except Monday. Check the website for the weekly schedule, which includes Wacky Wednesday, with discounted admission and rentals, and Christian Music Night. Book a birthday party in the space and select from one of several great party packages. Kids who have some trouble staying aloft on wheels can take lessons, which are offered over six week sessions to those ages 3-17.
